

Homework February 12th 2018

This week the children are learning to use a wider range of conjunctions to extend sentences.

Using the list of conjunctions below, match up the extra information sentence needed to extend the main clause. Make sure the conjunction and clause make sense. E.g.

My Grandma is coming to look after me tonight. My parents are going to the theatre.

My Grandma is coming to look after me tonight because my parents are going to the theatre.

Main clause	Extra information sentence.
I'm not wearing my coat.	My brother offered to help me.
We ate lots of popcorn.	We did our homework.
I didn't tidy my bedroom.	It's too hot today.
Mum said we could bake a cake.	He was wearing his new wellingtons.
Tom jumped in the puddles.	We were watching the Paddington film.

while	because	although	if	when
-------	---------	----------	----	------

Write the sentences in full below using the different conjunctions.
