

Year 2 Homework

Out: Monday 12th February

Due for: Monday 26th February

This week the homework activity will focus on using a wider variety of conjunctions to extend sentences. Please when reading with your child discuss the different conjunctions used within the text and the position of the conjunction within in sentence.

Please learn spellings that are in your child's book and on the website, click Spell Anywhere link. The spellings this week are revising the Year 2 common exception words.

Class times table for test on Monday 26th February x3 table facts. Please use a variety of language when practising the table at home such as multiple, lots of, shared by, groups of.

Reading 3 times at home, please fill in the yellow reading diary. As always, the home reading books and challenge books are available for the children to swap any day.

Finally the children will have their individual Passport test again next Wednesday.

Thank you and wishing you a lovely half term.
